M. B. JACKSON, M.P.P., ATTENDS MEETING HELD ON TUESDAY EVENING.

A marked feature of the Board of Trade meeting held last Tuesday evening was the manifest interest of those present in the various subjects under discussion. As was announced last week the local member, Mr. M. B. Jackson, had accepted the invitation of the board and promised to come out and meet the members, and several well known local men who are not members of the board were also present, including Rev. F. Letts, Messrs. A. Munro, A. McDonald, J. Critchley, S. Spencer, C. C. Cochran and others.

After the minutes of the regular council meeting of the board had been read the president called upon Hon. President M. B. Jackson to take the chair, after which the reports of committees were received.

The Street Light Committee reported on the arrangements that had been made for the entertainment to be held on Wednesday evening.

The committee on the National Service Board of Canada proposition reported having met and discussed the various aspects of the question and had decided to call a conference of some of the leading men of the district for further consideration of these important problems. These invitations will be mailed during the week. The members of the board are also invited.

The chairman of the trees committee was able to give a very good report on the splendid condition of the trees set out on Beacon avenue and other streets and believed that in the near future they would prove a credit to the district.

Some correspondence was read and duly received and filed, not requiring further attention.

Mr. President then addressed a few well chosen words to Mr. Jackson, expressing the pleasure it gave the members of the board to have him present and mentioned some of the questions which would be of interest to hear him speak on and his views thereon.

Mr. Jackson in his opening remarks stated his pleasure and interest in being present and told how memories of old in his early prairie life had been awakened by what he had heard that evening, how he could look back on similar gatherings in these early days, but these small gatherings had been fruitful and had produced lasting results. He then gave a short resume of the work of the past session, drawing particular attention to the legislation affecting agriculture and mines, laying down as a principle that agriculture must be the backbone of the country. We find ourselves in hearty agreement with the proposition and we are assured that no real progress will be made until the public recognize this fact. In regard to mines, Mr. Jackson stated that the immense potentialities of which was not yet realized and gave the rather roseate view that the time would come when the public income from them would be sufficient to pay the administration expenses of the province. It is to be hoped so but it is doubtful.

In dealing with the questions to which his attention had been called he agreed that the need of a policeman in the district was real and steps would be taken for a suitable man to be appointed, a returned soldier if possible. On the matter of roads, especially the construction of the paving from the Saanich boundary to Sidney, it was an admitted necessity and would be carried out without doubt as soon as funds were available. He assured all present that the need of this was admitted by the department and the government, but we must have a little more patience.

On the conclusion of Mr. Jackson's address the president extended the thanks of the board and an informal discussion took place, quite a number of those present taking part. Taxation and assessment came in for a good deal of attention and much dissatisfaction was expressed. Mr. Jackson was able to assure all that these questions were receiving special consideration and a committee had the questions in hand now and were to report before the fall session. There was a general feeling that the tax payers are in a measure to blame for the present conditions. They must bestir themselves and give attentive and intelligent expression of protest to the unjust system.

The vexed question of the ditches was also mentioned and Mr. Jackson promised attention. As the hour was getting late and Mr. Jackson had to return to Victoria he now took his leave, but before doing so Mr. Guy Walker rose and in his usual style and eloquence moved a hearty vote of thanks to the district representative for taking the trouble to visit Sidney on this occasion. Mr. J. Critchley seconded the motion and on being put by the president was carried unanimously.

Upon the invitation of the president other visitors were invited to speak and the opportunity was taken advantage of by Rev. F. Letts, Mr. A. McDonald and Mr. A. Munro, who all expressed the pleasure they had derived from being present.

The remainder of the evening was taken up with a discussion of conscription and the following resolution was moved and seconded and carried unanimously: "Resolved that the Board of Trade of Sidney, B. C., approves of the principle of conscription of the man power and wealth of the nation."

Copies of this resolution will be forwarded to Sir Robert Borden and Mr. F. H. Shepherd, M.P.P.

HIGH SCHOOL EXAMS.

Mr. J. A. Armstrong, of the Provincial Board of Education, is in town this week conducting the entrance examinations. The following students from outside points are in attendance:

Beaver Point—Hazel King, Grace Reynolds, Andrew Stevens, Peter Stevens. Burgoyne Bay—Elizabeth Maxwell. Deep Cove—Mary Holt, Ruth Holt.

THE MILITARY FIVE HUNDRED.

The Military Five Hundred held in Berquist Hall last evening was a complete success in every way, except in point of numbers, the citizens of Sidney failing to turn out and "do their bit" towards wiping off a moral financial obligation and pay off the electric light bill. While this was a keen disappointment to those in charge yet, nevertheless those present had a very enjoyable evening. The affair was handled by Mr. Steele, of Victoria, in a most efficient manner and the dancing after the game was a pleasure to all. Tables numbers four and five having each captured 18 flags it fell to their lot to cut for the prizes. Table No. 4, composed of Mrs. Steele, Miss Lillian Tester, Sergt. McKenzie and Pte. Jarvis were finally declared the winners, the prizes being boxes of writing paper for the ladies and hair brushes for the gentlemen. The consolation prizes went to table number 6, Miss Terry, Miss Ross, Pte. Tolhurst and Mr. Reading being the fortunate ones.

Miss Lorna White and Pte. Guechon, of Resthaven, provided the dance music. On motion of Mr. J. J. White, seconded by Mr. Bridge, of Vancouver, a hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Steele for handling the game and to Mr. J. D. Carlan for bringing him out, and also to the committee and those helping was unanimously passed.

To this Mr. Steele made a suitable reply emphasizing his willingness to come again to Sidney and expressing his pleasure at his treatment while here. Messrs. Roche and Lesage, the committee who had the affair in hand, were very energetic and due credit must be given them for a very pleasant entertainment.

Arrangements have been made for the transferring of all to Mr. R. Bryce's picnic grounds, Meadlands. Parents are asked to provide refreshments, including cups and plates.

To the Chairman and Members of the Sidney and District Branch of the Red Cross Society:

In presenting the report of receipts and expenditures for the past twelve months I would beg to draw to the attention of the members, and the public who have so generously given their aid, the fact that every cent of the money contributed to the Red Cross Fund has been sent to the headquarters secretary-treasurer. All expenses have been defrayed by special donations, either asked for or voluntarily donated for some special purpose.

While giving a short summary of the different methods by which money has been raised, and of the larger donations I would like to mention that a raffle for a handsome and valuable gramophone presented by Mr. H. Martin, is still in progress and therefore cannot be shown on this year's report. THE ROYAL FLYING CORPS

Recruiting posters of the Royal Flying Corps have been placed around Sidney and there is no doubt it will interest some who may have ambition to find out what it is like one thousand feet above Mother Earth. As there are about fifty different kinds of mechanics needed it gives quite a varied opportunity for possible applicants. Firstly there are three classes of labor, unskilled, including men with only slight knowledge of trades, at $1.10 per day. These men will continue on the course of instruction in their trade to which they are most suited until proficient when they will be classes as second class air mechanics and allowed $1.35 per diem. After a further period varying from one to three months, according to their ability these men will again be promoted to the rank of first class air mechanics at $1.60. After attaining this position they are classed as expert men in their own particular trade and become eligible for further promotion according to requirements. On account of the great care and accuracy needed it is understood that many overseers or examiners are needed. This is where the skilled man has the opportunity to show his ability and incidentally to better his position. His next promotion would be to the rank of corporal, at $1.70 per day, and he would then take command of a small detachment of men and act as assistant foreman. Upon proving his worth in this capacity he becomes eligible for the rank of sergeant, at $2.00 per day. In this rank he enjoys many privileges which are denied to those of lower rank and has a considerable amount of power to deal with any questions regarding work or routine, his opinion being asked on many matters. The next promotion is to the rank of flight sergeant. On every day when he becomes responsible for the whole work and discipline of what is termed a "flight," consisting as it does of 40 to 50 N. C. O's. and men. This position carries with it great responsibility as each machine has to be examined personally by him previous to making a flight. He also has to know all the faults to which engines are liable and the methods of remedying the same, and he must also have a sound knowledge of the theory of flight or the reason why a machine flies. His next step is to the rank of first class warrant officer and he then becomes wholly responsible for the work of a squadron, consisting as it does of 150 to 870 N. C. O's. and men, in other words he becomes the works manager. His position is then practically assured and his power almost unlimited and the rate of pay reaches $2.80 per day.

Several cases may be quoted of men obtaining the rank of first class warrant officer within twelve months from date of enlistment and on the organization of new corps such as the Royal Flying Corps in Canada, this is quite possible. Many opportunities present themselves to men of high standard in mechanical proficiency or in the controlling of workmen, especially if they are also smart and neat in appearance.

An aerodrome for the purpose of training pilots for work in France is about to be opened at Lulu Island in the near future. This school will have an establishment of mechanics numbering between 500 and 1,000 men. The majority of men enlisting from British Columbia will be posted at the above station, according to requirements. No man with a sound knowledge of any mechanical trade need fear being turned down or his work not being appreciated. In the work shop he has every facility given him to see and work out every branch of his own trade and eventually become conversant with all details.

Regarding allowances, these are paid on the full Canadian scale, and as a man must join as willing to proceed overseas if necessary, he also becomes entitled to the patriotic allowances. This fund has no fixed scale and the amount varies according to the circumstances of the applicant. Any further details required will be supplied by Flight Sergt. Metcalfe at the recruiting office, 1210 Government street, Victoria. Any one desirous of looking further into this may apply either in person or by letter to the above address.

Let it be thoroughly understood that all men joining the Royal Flying Corps are kept with this unit and are not transferred to other regiments. A limited number of men who have no special trade will be accepted and taught a trade upon joining as unskilled labor at $1.10 per day.

To those who realize the importance of aerial navigation and its brilliant future from a commercial and mechanical point of view, this corps offers innumerable opportunities of learning a business or trade likely to become one of the most important after the war and will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are doing their bit and also improving themselves at one and the same time. To those engaged in ground work as mechanics the age limits are from 18 to 45, and for those intending to take up flying, from 18 to 25. Youths under 18 who are interested in aviation may register their names and will be called upon when they become of eligible age. Men who have been turned down for units of the C. E. F. for slight medical defects such as slight rupture, slight varicose or other minor defects may be accepted for ground work.

Respectfully submitted,

SYDNEY A. KELLY,

Hon. Secy.-Treas.

The annual report of Mrs. J. J. White convener of the sewing committee of the Sidney and District Branch of the Red Cross Society, was submitted as follows:

"After taking charge in June last the work was continued in the rooms in the Berquist block. The first difficulty to face was the lack of sewing machines, as I found that borrowed machines were most unsatisfactory, and we only had one Red Cross machine. This difficulty was met by two anonymous givers who each loaned the Red Cross a machine for as long as they would be required. Our next difficulty was when the opening of the summer camp brought more business to the town and our rooms were sought for other purposes at a much higher rent. As Mr. Berquist had been giving them to us for very little we did not feel it right for us to keep them so in July moved to a room in the Country Club where we sewed every Friday until October. These were very pleasant quarters indeed, but we found it a great waste of time in going back and forth so several other days in the week we carried the work to 'Winola' and sewed. In October we moved back to the Berquist block and into such comfortable quarters that I hope we shall be able to remain as long as our sewing is required.

Mr. Berquist very kindly keeps a supply of wood and kindling ready and with the kindness of the B. C. Electric and Sidney Water Companies everything is very convenient. Three sewing machine motors have been supplied by the local Red Cross committee, and through the kindness of Mesdames Kennedy, Martin and Matthews, Dr. Tidey and Mr. Kelly we have been able to rent two machines for the year.

Mrs. Des Barres very kindly came to the rescue and donated an electric iron which was greatly needed. A sewing machine was also bought by the committee for the Deep Cove branch. This spring, finding that sewing only on Tuesdays and Fridays was being handicapped by the want of machines, it was decided to divide the work into Tuesdays for dressing gowns and finishing, Wednesdays for pyjamas, Thursdays for shirts and Fridays for bandages and finishing. Saturday was the day set aside for the children.

Very successful work has been carried on during the year at Deep Cove under the convener'ship of Mrs. Kennedy, who will give a report of her work later.

In February a branch, with Mrs. Walley as convener, was opened on James Island with excellent results, and since the new year the children to the number of thirty-seven have been doing splendid work, especially with their knitting. Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Harding have been of great assistance to this latter work.

Messrs. Harvey, Blackburn, Cowell and McNaught have kindly taken our work back and forth to Deep Cove and Mr. Blackburn looks after our boxes moving from and going to the station, for which he has the sincere thanks of our committee.

During the year the following list of finished work has been sent to the Temple Building, Victoria:

235 dressing gowns, 333 convalescent suits, 253 day shirts, 152 surgical shirts, 166 pyjama suits, 682 abdominal bandages, 534 chest bandages, 665 T bandages, 42 triangular bandages, 537 pairs socks, 36 trench caps, 46 scarves, 7 sweaters, 12 pairs mitts, 60 wash cloths, 63 hot water bag covers, 31 personal property bags, 12 comfort bags, 11 filled comfort bags, 1 filled kit bag, 7 operation stockings, 5 handkerchiefs, and $26.50 cash for kit bags.

The following donations have been received at the local headquarters:

Socks from Mrs. Case and the Misses Turnbull, Croasdale, Hay and Hogg. 15 surgical shirts and old linen from Allies Chapter, I. O. D. E. Filled comfort bags from Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Layard, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Des Barres, Mr. Ian Mair, Miss Margaret Cochran, Mrs. B. D. White and two from Miss Logan and cash donations for the same from Mrs. Fisher, $1, and Mrs. Downey 50 cents. Cash donations for the same purpose from James Island $14.35; Mrs. Backler $2.35, Mrs. Holt $2, Miss Holt $1, Mrs. Lott $2.30, Mrs. Hayward $1, Mrs. Hocking 50 cents, Mrs. Bristowe $2, Messrs. Hocking and Mason $1.

The following list of work was received from the James Island branch:

1 dressing gown, 43 pyjama suits, 46 day shirts, 134 chest bandages, 142 T bandages, 6 triangular bandages, 56 pairs socks, 2 scarves, 16 face cloths, 7 handkerchiefs.

DEEP COVE SUB-BRANCH.

For the information of members of the Red Cross, the following is an outline of the work done in the year ending June 21st, 1917, at Deep Cove. This time last year meetings were held monthly at Mrs. Horth's house, then weekly meetings were arranged for, the average attendance being from 5 to 10. This seems small, but with the help of some of the members taking work home and in spite of the bad winter and the difficulty in getting about, work did not fail. In March, however, it was found to be more convenient, as some members lived at a distance, to hold every alternate meeting in the new church hall and at Mrs. Horth's. This helped to increase the work sent in and the attendance then was from 8 to 15 members. In April the Sidney Committee kindly donated a sewing machine for use in Church Hall, which was most acceptable.

Last February knitting was started at the Deep Cove and Meadlands which added considerably to the knitting list the children entering into the work with interest. The list of articles knitted by both schools since February is as follows: 5 pairs of socks, 9 pairs bed socks, 7 trench caps, 10 pairs mittens, 13 scarves (1 knitted by a boy of 6 six years old, quite alone.) Kit bag contributions were liberally handed in amounting to $12.15.

The following is the list of articles sent in since last November: 33 surgical and flannel shirts, 15 convalescent and other suits, 23 dressing gowns, 349 bandages of various kinds, 25 comfort and other bags, 5 filled comfort bags, 23 pairs of socks, 13 pairs bed socks, 16 scarves, 16 trench caps, 10 pairs mittens.

The total number of members at Deep Cove is 23. I wish to thank Mrs. and Miss Horth for kindly allowing the meetings at their house and for their hospitality in providing tea at all the meetings and for their help with the work. Mrs. Layard deserves thanks and credit for having done all the cutting out of articles necessary during the year till about two months ago when no more were required. She has also helped in teaching the children to knit. I must also thank Mrs. Horth, Mrs. Lott and Mrs. Lustig for their kind efforts in helping to start the meetings in the new hall by giving many things necessary for these meetings.

MRS. KENNEDY
Convener.
